Questions about Brian's "The Truth About America's Heritage" Presentation

***

Is this a sermon, speech, or seminar?

Yes. ☺ It can be adapted to fit any of those situations. I've preached this before as a message and I've taught it in the classroom as a lesson. It can be adapted to fit your audience and the setting you provide.

Do you charge a speaking fee?

If your organization or ministry chooses to provide a love offering or is willing to help with travel/gas/food expenses (if applicable), that is certainly appreciated, but it is not required. Though I require no monetary fee, I do respectfully ask of you the following:

- The opportunity to provide educational materials (booklets, audio programs, DVDs, etc.) for sale
- A written and signed testimonial (if you are satisfied with my presentation), that I can use in my promotional materials (including my website)
- Recommendations/Referrals/Introductions to help me share my message with other venues

Are you incorporated?

No. At present, I am a sole proprietor. I do plan to incorporate my ministry in the months ahead, but for now, any checks should be payable to "Brian Tubbs." I should also note that my speaking ministry is completely separate from Olney Baptist Church, the congregation I am privileged to serve as pastor.

Do you have any special requirements?

For a more enhanced presentation (especially for a seminar or classroom setting), I welcome the ability to project slides from my laptop computer.

The only definite need would be for a table (preferably in a well-traveled area) to display/offer educational materials (booklets, audio recordings, DVDs, etc.). I make no "hard sell" from the platform, but do like to make these resources available for sale. In addition to a table, I would also appreciate a responsible adult or teen volunteer who (in exchange for a free audio CD) will staff the resource table and collect money when products are purchased. The latter is important, as it will allow me to interact more with your audience members before and after the presentation.

When I speak to schools and youth-only audiences (such as a high school history class, Christian school chapel service, or church youth group), I bring very few products with me. No table or volunteer is necessary in that case. However, I do provide a ministry flyer for the school office to photocopy and send home with the kids.

Is your presentation non-partisan?

Absolutely! At no time do I endorse any party or political candidate. In fact, George Washington warned against the dangers of political factions and parties. The Founders didn't put the hope of America in political parties, but in God.
